

North High Lites

By JOYCE MORRIS

Pet squad vs. woman faculty in volleyball was one of the big events last week. The girls from the pep squad wore wigs, hats, glasses, and Indian garb. The activity was to raise money for pep-squad pins.

"Summer Stock," the annual Girls' League variety show, was a success. With its songs and story "written, stolen and compiled" by Mr. Hoefler.

From sneakers to heels, levis to suits. All of this was seen during Dress-Up Day which the Freshman class sponsored last Friday.

On Senior-parents night, skits were presented to explain to parents different activities seniors enjoy. Such skits as "Prophecy," "Commencement," "Field Day," "Senior Tea," and "All-Night Party" were put on by the seniors.

The Samoan Villagers, were seen in a program of tribal dances as part of the entertainment presented at the Boys' League Luau. The Wild Cats provided music for dancing.

The luau was held April 29. Dress was surfs for the boys, sarongs and moo-moo's for the girls. The decorations were of Hawaiian motif. There also were orchids for the girls.

Six students took speech awards at Redlands Speech Tournament. Mason Wolpert, junior, won three superior certificates. Sandra Rayes, sophomore, won two certificates. Claudia Wilkins and Sandra Wegener each won a superior certificate. Karen Jackson took third place in impromptu speaking. Karen helped North High take fourth place in the tournament.

Spring Festival was held at North High yesterday. The orchestra was heard in selections from "Show Boat" and "Mexican Overture." A piano solo featured Rachel Fillon, in "Dream of Oliver." The band played "Victory at Sea" and "Dry Bones." Robert Jones directed.

The choir performed "Louisiana Hay Ride," and "I'll walk with God." Under direction of Lyda Willis.

The Girls' Glee, directed by Marilyn Steele, sang "Lullaby of Rhythm," "I Enjoy Being a Girl," and "Til There Was You."

The Mixed Chorus sang "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Climbin' Up the Mountain," and "Green Cathedral," and conducted by Frank Small.
